Prospective homeschoolers are parents looking for an alternative to the mainstream educational system for their offspring. But homeschooling children at high school level strikes fear into even the most dedicated of homeschoolers. They need information and answers to their questions. And with the current educational and unemployment problems in South Africa, young people need clear direction and guidance to help them achieve their goals. In addition to exploring the popular ways to gaining a recognised matric certificate outside the formal school system,

Technical and vocational education and training at technical schools are major contributing factors in combating poverty, unemployment, and inequality. The primary purpose of technical and vocational education and training is to prepare students and learners for the world of work and for a smooth transition from education institutions into the workplace. As the Fourth Industrial Revolution continues to create more radical changes in the labor market, experts are calling for a reform of education, including vocational education and training and adult in today's troublesome world. This book is divided into four parts, which expounds on foundational principles of a Christian day school, God-ordained assignments in the organizational structure of a Christian day school, practical components of a quality Christian day school, and posterity of Christian day schools. The importance of being called, equipped, and anointed by God to serve within any capacity of a Christian day school is highlighted in this book as well. Most importantly, Christian day schools are established to meet the needs of the whole child: spirit, soul, and body.
