A slapstick spoof on the wonder kid from the sticks--"Five-Yard Fuller"--a hayseed football Player who can pitch a ball that somersaults then boomerangs, makes a right angle, or whistles invisibly over the plate. The New York Gnats play hilariously inept ball until Fuller comes along to pitch and smash the team to the permant. But it's Ma Fuller who coaches them on to World Series victory against the couth Yanks with threats of chores and promises of elderberry pie.

Daniel Jones flops in debilitating Giants loss to Cardinals

Vanderbilt played with just 49 scholarship players, not counting Fuller, with only 18 available on defense after defensive lineman and sack leader Dayo Odeyingbo opted out earlier this week. The Commodores led 10-7 early in the second after a 39-yard field goal from Pierson Cooke, a kick just outside Fuller's range of 38 yards.
